

ADVENTISTS IN QUADRENNIAL SESSION

FUNDAMENTAL BIBLE TRUTHS THE THEME OF WEDNESDAY MORNING'S DISCOURSE BY ELDER DANIELLS; ELDER MARTIN REPORTS ON MENACE OF SUNDAY CLOS-ING LAWS

ELDER QUINN URGES DEFINITE ACTION

Fundamental Bible truths accepted by Seventh-day Adventists were enunciated at yesterday morn-ing's session of the Pacific Union Conference, in the Adventist church at California and Isabel streets, by Elder Arthur G. Daniells of Washington, D. C., president of the General Conference of that denomination. "There is no higher criticism among Seventh-day Adventists," said Mr. Daniells. "We are agreed that the Bible from cover to cover is an inspired Book—the Book of God. I am glad for the unanimity of views among us.

"There are certain fundamental Bible truths upon which we are all agreed. We believe that Jesus Christ is the divine Son of God, and that the law of God is the foundation of all morality. It is the supreme guide for the human race.
 Every man must square his life by that law, and the gospel of God's grace will enable a man to do it.
 The gospel is the only means by which it is possible for one to live that life.

"The literal, visible return of Christ and the imminence of that event is a fundamental, vital truth.
 Jesus is coming in this generation.
 We are united in the belief that man is mortal and that, as we are told in First Timothy 6:16, God 'only hath immortality.' We have planted our feet firmly upon the scripture (Ecclesiastes 9:5) which assures us that 'the dead know not anything,' that all are unconscious in the grave until the great resurrection day. We are agreed concerning the Bible teaching upon the subject of the millennium, that this 1000-year period will follow the coming of Christ. We are agreed, in harmony with the statements of Revelation 20, that during that period Satan will be bound by a chain of circumstances over which he will have no control. We accept the scriptures which tell us the earth will lie desolate during the millennium, and that at the close of that period, the resurrection of the wicked will occur, that just punishment may be imposed for all their evil deeds. Our members, both ministry and laity, are in full harmony in their interpretation of the great lines prophecy of the second, eighth, ninth and eleventh chapters of Daniel, as well as concerning the wonderful foretellings of Revelation.

Says Good Works No Saviour
 "The gospel message shining from this blessed Bible is today the clearest it has ever been. We believe, according to the definite, specific teaching of Holy Writ, that righteousness is obtained, not by any good works or voluntary infliction of pain upon ourselves, but by faith in God and His Son Jesus Christ. We do not try to keep God's laws in order that we may become righteous or be saved, but we do come to God in prayer, and through faith in Christ, accept the forgiveness of sin and the imputation of Christ's righteousness to us. Not by works of righteousness which we perform, nor because of penance which we do are we accepted of God, but through faith in His Son, Christ Jesus, who by His death upon the cross paid the penalty for our sins. Concerning the true follower of Christ, the scripture assures us, 'It is God that worketh in you both to will and to do, according to His good pleasure.'

"Better than any other plan conceived for the support of God's work is the system of tithing—paying forth in the Scriptures, and practiced by Seventh-day Adventists. Our records show a unanimity of belief by all our people throughout the world in the great truth of

ETHEL ST. PROPERTY

MRS. M. SHERMAN PROUD OF
 ITS RECENT BUILDING
 ACTIVITY

When, a few months ago, Mrs.
 Minette Sherman was compelled to move, with her daughters, Dorothy and Marjorie, from 410 Vine Street, because of the house having been sold, she bought a place on Ethel Street, just north of the Wash.
 There had then been no recent improvements on this street, which is but one block long, extending east from Louise to the olive grove. But since that time Ethel has come to the front. Ivan Goodrich, over whose head two houses he had rented were sold, decided he would build, so hastily erected on a lot he had purchased at No. 319, a four-room house, into which he moved his family before the doors and windows were put in. He will add to the building later. Robert Hawkinson, a clerk in a Los Angeles store, bought two lots, setting one to a variety of fruit trees and starting a five-room residence on the other.
 David Brown, a fellow clerk of Hawkinson, made a similar purchase just east of him and has just taken out a permit for a four-room bungalow. He has set his extra lot to fruit trees, also. Mrs. Sherman says another lot has recently been purchased, just across the street from her place, which is No. 320, and a residence will be built thereon. The property owners have taken initial steps to have the street paved and new walks and curbs put in.

DEATH OF LILIAN HAHN

The many friends of Mrs. Hahn and her daughter, Miss Lilian Hahn, of Omaha, who spent last winter in Glendale and Long Beach, will be grieved to learn that the young woman died quite suddenly February 12th. She and her mother were relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackburn of this city and also had close friendships with a group of Glendale residents who formerly lived in Nebraska. A letter from Miss Hahn written January 15th stated that they would soon return to California to make their permanent home here. The friends here have not received particulars of Miss Hahn's death.

FLOWERS PROFITABLE

H. W. MYERS, 87 YEARS OLD, MAKES GOOD IN RAISING
 AND SELLING BLOOMS

Henry W. Myers, the aged owner of a highly cultivated little ranch in the very heart of Glendale, at 1203 South Central Avenue, has set an example of intensive cultivation that men of one-fourth his age could follow with profit. He has 2 3-4 acres with a frontage of 150 feet on Central Avenue and a depth of 800 feet bordering on Palmer Avenue.
 On this ground are many varieties of fruit—peaches, pears, plums, oranges, lemons, berries, etc., and vegetables of many kinds are raised, also. Four years ago Mr. Myers decided he would try flower culture, also, and he has at last brought to perfection a luxuriant growth of Roman hyacinths, narcissus, daffodils and Chinese lilies. His hyacinths represent between 20,000 and 30,000 bulbs and they are now in the full flowering stage. The season for both hyacinths and narcissus is from December to March, when nearly all other flowers are very scarce. Mr. Myers carried to market, day by day, the season just closed, more than $400 worth of the two flowers last named, most of them hyacinths, however. As he is past 87 and has also taken full care of the planting and cultivation of his flowers, as well as vegetables and fruit, this is certainly a record.
 He lays his vigorous old age to clean living and total abstinence from the use of liquor and tobacco, and his advice to young men is that they start out on this plan and carry it through to the end.

RAINFALL TO DATE 8.22 INCHES

H. E. Bartlett reports to the Evening News that the rainfall for last night and this forenoon was .48 inches, bringing the total for the season to 8.22 inches.

EX-CITY CLERK OF REDONDO BUYS HOME IN GLENDALE

C. E. Russell's property at 345 W.
 Lexington Drive was recently sold, through the James W. Pearson agency, to W. A. Anderson, late city clerk of Redondo. He will move his family here about March 1.

PRESIDENT REPLIES TO SUPREME COUNCIL

DISPATCHES NOTE ON ADRIATIC DISPUTE THROUGH ACTING SECRETARY OF STATE POLK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Wilson today completed his reply to the Supreme Council's note on the dispute over the Adriatic settlement, and handed it to Acting Secretary of State Polk for transmission to Europe. It is understood the note is brief and to the point. President Wilson handed the reply without outside advice, as far as could be ascertained.

SALE OF GERMAN LINERS DELAYED

JUSTICE BAILEY GRANTS TEMPORARY INJUNCTION AND COMMISSIONERS OF SHIPPING BOARD EXPLAIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—A temporary injunction against the sale of former German liners by the Shipping Board, was granted today by Justice Bailey of the District of Columbia Supreme Court.
 Opponents of the immediate sale of former German liners not only had an inning in court, but also before the Senate Commerce Committee today. Before the Senate committee, R. D. Stevens, Shipping Board commissioner, opposed the sale of the vessels now.
 Stevens declared the Shipping Board had placed too low a valuation on the ships. In their appraisal, he said, seven of the liners were held to be valueless, but the bids on these seven amounted to more than six millions, causing the Board to raise its valuation ten million dollars. "If we could secure a fair value for the ships they should be held until they can either be sold at their real value or Congress authorizes us to sell them below their value for the purpose of aiding the American Merchant Marine," Stevens said.

PEACE TREATY AS CAMPAIGN ISSUE

ITS WITHDRAWAL BY PRESIDENT CONSIDERED AS UN-LIKELY AS LODGE'S SURRENDER ON ARTICLE 10

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The peace treaty will go into the campaign, Senator Hitchcock, Democratic leader said today. "From present indications I expect the treaty will be in the campaign," said Hitchcock, who viewed this development with composure.

The possibility that President Wilson may take the treaty out of politics by withdrawing it from the Senate and pigeon-holing it, is considered to be quite as remote as that Senator Lodge may surrender on Article 10. The indications were today that the Senate will not spend much more time on the treaty. The illness of Senator Lodge may prevent further discussion this week. Should Lodge be absent and the treaty get dormant, it was considered almost certain that it would be displaced next Monday or early in the week by the railroad bill. Once the treaty is side tracked in favor of something else, it will probably not be revived, at least not until the press of appropriation legislation has been disposed of. By that time the Senate will be ready to adjourn for the political conventions.

PRISONERS TO WITNESS HANGING

SHERIFF OF COOK COUNTY JAIL, CHICAGO, DISREGARDS PROTESTS OF STATE OFFICIALS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Prisoners now in the county jail will witness the hanging of "Smiling Jack" O'Brien tomorrow, despite protests from State Attorney General Hoyne and other officials, Sheriff Charles W. Peters declared today. Hoyne sent to Peters an interpretation of the law regarding hangings in which he said the sheriff would violate the statutes providing for public hangings if other prisoners were allowed to see O'Brien's death. Peters claims Hoyne misinterpreted the law.

PRESIDENTIAL DISABILITY AMENDMENT

FESS PROPOSAL REGARDED AS POLITICAL CAPITAL
 RATHER THAN SERIOUS ENDEAVOR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Congressional inquiry to determine exactly what steps should be taken to meet any future emergencies caused by serious or long continued illness of a chief executive, probably will result from the action of Representative Fess of Ohio in introducing in the House a "presidential disability amendment to the constitution." Fess favors a complete investigation by the House judiciary committee and the constitutional and legal aspects of the situation with reference to the proposed amendment.

Democrats apparently believe that Fess' amendment is more of a political move with a view of reflecting on the recent illness of the president than any endeavor to meet a real emergency and for that reason hopes for the approval of the House of this or any similar plan at this session of Congress, appear slight. A two-thirds vote of both houses is necessary for the passage of the amendment.

Fess is chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee and an active party leader.

PARK IMPROVEMENT

PROSPECTIVE OPENING OF
 KENILWORTH AVE. TO NEW RECREATION GROUND

City officials report that before the tree planting campaign ends it is probable that 4000 of the 6000 trees available in the city nurseries will have been planted. February 11th a city truck and force of men was busy all day delivering trees to citizens who had made application for them for parkways. As already reported, a large number were planted in the new Kenilworth City Park and another tree planting day in which more will be planted there will probably be named in the near future. The planting of trees in the Edwards & Wilkey Subdivision under the arrangement the company made with the city is going forward.

In this connection it is interesting to know that there is a good prospect that Kenilworth Avenue within a reasonable time can be opened so it will extend from Broadway north to the north corner of the new park and then across the Wash to the P. E. Burbank line. It is now open from Broadway to Doran St.
 Its extension from that point would be through property owned by Mr.
 Gray and property now being subdivided by Edwards & Wilkey. Members of that firm have signified their intention of reserving 25 feet to be dedicated to the city for Kenilworth Avenue whenever a like amount can be dedicated on the opposite side.
 Mr. Gray is favorable to the proposition and will probably arrange for a similar reservation and dedication subject to the lease of his tenant, who is using the land for agricultural purposes. The owners of property between Kenilworth Park and the P. E.'s Burbank line have indicated their willingness to dedicate their portion necessary to carry the street to the electric line. Such a thoroughfare would make close connections between the park and the P. E. and would provide another street paralleling Pacific Avenue and about six hundred feet west.

DEATH OF ELVIDGE McWILLIAMS

C. E. Peck was grieved to receive a message Wednesday, advising him of the death from influenza of El-vidge McWilliams, the brother of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Peck.
 The deceased young man had spent a good deal of time in Glendale and had quite a circle of friends here.
 For some time he was in the Imperial Valley, but left there a year ago to become superintendent of an irrigation system near Sacramento.
 His sister, who was superintendent in one of the Oakland schools, has taken the body to their old home, Ashland, Ore., for interment.

ARDELL McLAUGHLIN RECOVERING

Ardell McLaughlin, who was brought out to the Glendale Sanitarium last Friday evening suffering from severe injuries to his head and right leg, was removed to his home, 816 South Maryland Avenue, Tuesday. No bone was broken, but a small piece was chipped off of one of the bones in the right heel. Dr.
 Eckles, who is attending him, says he will be all right again in six or eight weeks. The Los Angeles authorities have the name of the man driving the auto that struck Ardell.
 He is from Gardena. Ardell's aunt says bystanders whose statements were secured placed the blame on the motorist. She will have a thorough examination made.

DEATH OF ANNA DIEDERICH

Death has again come close to Peter Diederich of 327 North Belmont Street, who is connected with the Public Service Department of this city. At 5:30 o'clock this morning his only daughter, Anna E. Diederiche, who was but eleven years of age, died of influenza. The child's mother passed away last March. The remains are now at the Scovern parlors and funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at Holy Family Catholic Church, with interment at Calvary Cemetery.

WARREN ROBERTS BEREAVED

Warren Roberts of 539 East Elk Avenue has just been advised of the death of his father, W. H. Roberts, at his home in Des Moines. It is a great shock to him, as he had not been informed his father was ill.
 The telegram gave no particulars as to the cause of death. Mr. Roberts will leave this afternoon for Des Moines to attend the funeral services.

MRS. J. H. BERRY DEAD

END COMES AFTER NEARLY
 EIGHTY YEARS OF USE-FUL LIVING

Mrs. James H. Berry died at her home, 237 South Orange, last evening at about 7 o'clock, of pneumonia. She was in her 80th year and up to the time of her last illness had been very active, doing the housework for the family of four and walking several blocks to see her daughter's family quite frequently.

Aminta A. Haldeman was born near Richmond, Va., Oct. 14, 1840.
 Here she grew to womanhood and in 1859 moved with her parents, brothers and sisters, to Carroll County, Mo., they making the trip in a covered wagon. In the fall of 1865 she married James H. Berry, a Union soldier who had recently returned home from serving his country. Soon after their marriage they joined the Christian Church in Carrollton and were baptized in the Missouri River, 18 inches of ice being cut through to reach the water. Seven children were born to them, only three of whom survive her. The family moved to Windsor, Colo., in 1902, and to Glendale in 1911, the two surviving sons, Thomas W. and Frank E., with the former's only son, John, coming with them, the daughter, Claudia, who had married John H.
 Springer in 1900, coming a year later, with her husband and two children. Mrs. Berry loved her home and children above all else, and the care of them, with her church duties, kept her days full of good works. Of the large family of which she was born a member, only one sister remains, Mrs. I. C. Johnson, of Carroll County, Mo.

PHILADELPHIANS LOCATE IN GLENDALE

Chas. N. Denny and wife and their three sons—Bruce, Carl and David—have moved into the house recently purchased at 1411 South Central Avenue. They came out here from Philadelphia, where Mr.
 Denny had been working as a paperhanger. He is working in the shipyards at present but will soon take up his old trade. He is occupying his few spare moments in re-papering and painting the house. Mrs.
 Denny's father, Wm. A. Grote, and a brother, Wm. A. Jr., have been living in Glendale for a few years, and another brother, Harry L., came out from Philadelphia two months ago. The Grotes live at 440 and 444 West Garfield Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Denny are very much pleased with the change from the icy East to Sunny California.

AFTERNOON OF NEEDLEWORK

Mrs. J. B. McClellan of 126 N.
 Central Avenue entertained Wednesday afternoon with a needlework party as a benefit for the Tuesday Afternoon Club building fund. Pink carnations and ferns were used in decoration, and dainty refreshments were served. Her guest list included Mesdames Ralph Meeker, W. W.
 Hamilton, Andrew Findlay, F. K.
 Buchanan, J. L. Denney, S. W. Jam-erson, J. G. Huntley, A. W. Beach and C. L. Peckham.

ARD Eevin TEA PARTY

MRS. DANIEL CAMPBELL EN-TERTAINS LADIES OF GLEN-DALE PRES. CHURCH

Mrs. Daniel Campbell of Ard Eevin, North Glendale, entertained Wednesday afternoon with a tea party as a benefit for the building fund of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. Her guests were for the most part ladies of the Glendale Presbyterian Church in which Mrs. Campbell has been an active worker and who were very well acquainted with each other and with her. Mrs. W.
 E. Edmonds, wife of the present pastor, was there, and Mrs. Ward, wife of the former pastor. To the lady last named it was a pleasant opportunity to meet old friends.
 About thirty ladies were present.
 The hostess was assisted by Mrs.
 David Black who poured, and four young ladies—Elizabeth Edmonds, Esther Black, Inez Harrison and Kathleen Campbell, assisted in the serving of refreshments. Music and games constituted the entertainment of the afternoon, which for the most part was devoted to exchange of greetings and visiting. The Campbell home, as usual on such occasions, was beautifully decorated with wild bloom from the hills and with spring flowers from the garden of the hostess.

SHIP PROFITEERING

FRENCH OFFICIAL TELLS CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES 82 SHIPS BOUGHT IN AMERICA ARE UNSEAWORTHY

PARIS, Feb. 19.—"Of eighty-two ships built for France by the United States during the war, not one has been able to put to sea because they were built of unseasoned and defective lumber," M. Gignon, Under-Secretary of State told the French Chamber of Deputies today. The ships cost eighty-million dollars, Bignon said. An investigation has been ordered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The wooden vessels constructed for the French government in this country were sold by private firms and contrary to the Shipping Board's advice, it was stated today at the Shipping Board offices. The Board, it was said, had nothing to do with the construction of these vessels and sold no ships of any kind to France.

PLOT TO DISPOSE OF WIFE

OAKLAND MAN SECURES COMMITMENT OF SPOUSE TO ASYLUM, THEN MARRIES LATEST LOVE

OAKLAND, Feb. 19.—Details of an alleged plot by Franklin D. Williams by which he placed his wife in an insane asylum and then married the woman his wife had befriended, were disclosed in a suit for separate maintenance filed here by Mrs. Williams. The complaint declares that Mrs. Williams was released from the asylum through habeas corpus proceedings brought by her brothers and sisters. Williams married Catherine Specula, the complaint says, in Los Angeles before he divorced his wife.

Mrs. Williams' story is that she took Miss Specula into her home and treated her as a daughter after the disaster of 1906 had made her homeless. The complaint says that friendship between Williams and the girl ripened into love. Mrs. Williams was finally placed in an asylum on the testimony of the couple who then married.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE OF TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB GIVES PRETTY FUNCTION

At the home of Mrs. W. E. Evans a yellow tea was given Wednesday afternoon by members of the program committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club for the benefit of the club building fund. The hostesses were Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. L. N. Hagood and Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker. Mrs. Charles H. Toll, who is also a member of the committee, was unable to be present because of influenza in her home. Marigolds carried out the color scheme in the floral decorations of the dining room, sprays of yellow jasmine being used with quite a Japanese effect in the living room.

A brief but delightful program was provided, Mrs. F. W. Pigg singing a cycle of songs by Amy Woodruffe Finden and Cadman, for which Mrs. L. N. Hagood furnished the piano accompaniment.

Little Carmen de Lara, costumed like an oriole and looking exceedingly pretty in fluffy ruffles, gave a bird dance which the ladies greatly enjoyed, the third number being clever original pianologues by Mrs. Hagood. Tea and little cakes were served at the close of the program.

MANY SMALL STRAWBERRY PATCHES

Seed stores that handle plants as well report considerable buying this year of strawberry plants, in small lots by property owners who wish to be independent of the Japanese growers who kept the prices so high last year. Plants set out since the first of the year should begin bearing in the late summer and be yielding to full capacity next year, dealers say.

SCHOOL BOYS AND TRIANGLE MEMBERS ENGAGE IN INTERESTING ACTIVITIES

In the Civic Center room of the Central Avenue School every week meets an interesting and wide awake bunch of real boys who have formed a P. X. C. Club as a part of the District Y. M. C. A. Mr. Harry Marple, who is a real boys' man, has taken the leadership of this group and he was overheard talking to some of the boys about some of the good times they expect to have together. The course of study they have taken up is the work, "What Manner of Man Is This?" Ask some of the boys some time to have him show you his book and ask him what "PX" stands for.

The boys had an election of officers at the last meeting and here is the result of the election. The new officers are already feeling their responsibility. You ought to have seen them on the hike last Saturday—Russell La Velle, president; Fred Springer, vice president; Jared Wenger, secretary.

Russell led the bunch of fifteen hikers over the trail in great shape with the Y. M. C. A. Secretary bringing up the rear, over the mountain and down in the canyon where the boys camped and had a "weiner bake." No boys ever had a better time than these youngsters did that afternoon playing the games and then the hike home.

The Pacific Avenue School boys had an open air meeting Wednesday afternoon out in the backyard of one of the boys and started their organization.

They voted to have a hike Thursday, but the weather man changed their plans.

The Red Triangle Club celebrated Social Night Tuesday evening in the basement of the First M. E. Church, inviting a carload of the boys of the Burbank Red Triangle Club as their guests.

After the study of the lesson from "Men Who Dared," they held initiation of new members and the boys said it was so much fun that they want to take in some more new members. They played games until the "feed" was ready, and they made a record for stowing away the hot chocolate and the "hot dogs."

The "Ladder Club" held their weekly meeting, studied their lesson, "The Master Man," in their gym suits Wednesday evening under the leadership of Mr. J. Mac MacMillan and after the lesson as this was "Stunt" night they played a game of basket ball with the 110-pound team of the High School. The score was 10 to 9 in favor of the Y boys.

The boys on the "Y" team were: Paul Edmonds, Lofman Jeter, Fred Hand, Cecil Wilson and Valentine Hollingsworth.

The election of officers of this club elected the following: Valentine Hollingsworth, president; Paul Edmonds, vice president; Clarence Hall, secretary.

The local committee, of which Mr. David Black is chairman, has been called to meet for the annual election, at the High School Friday evening at 7:30.

ADVENTISTS IN SESSION

God's ownership and of man's partnership with the Creator.

"We believe furthermore, that it is our duty to labor that others may know the wonderful salvation which God stands ready to impart to men.
The life of the Christian must be a life of service."

Elder William F. Martin reported to the conference yesterday that Sunday closing ordinances have been introduced in 29 cities and towns of California during recent months, and that an organized effort is being made by the foes of religious freedom to bring about legislation which will force every man, woman and child in the state to observe the first day of the week. He said it is due the public to know the plans and schemes of organizations endeavoring to ignore or to tear down the constitutions of California and the United States.

Home Life an Index

That the family life is a safe index to a man's character, was the statement of Elder R. D. Quinn, representing the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, in his discourse Tuesday night. "Our wives know as much about our religion as anybody else," he said. "If there is anybody in the world I want to believe in me, it is my wife. Gypsy Smith was once asked how to start a revival. He said, 'I would go to my room and pray until my own heart was revived. Then I would let the circle of influence widen.' We have theorized, and philosophized, and sermonized. I don't believe God wants us to stop giving short, pointed, practical talks, but the day is past, in my judgment, for long laborious theorizing. The time now is for definite planning and definite action."

"Except for personal interest which Christian people took in me I would not be here, a Christian tonight. I was a trainman. I had visions of being a railroad magnate some day. But I put the great hereafter out of my reckoning. My sister took an interest in my spiritual welfare, as did also my parents.
They turned my thoughts toward God, but I did not seem able to make the surrender to Christ. I had a friend named Joe Collie whom I had known in the days before his conversion. He said to me one day, 'Rollin, don't you thing it is time you were surrendering to God?' I said, 'Yes, Joe, I know it is; but I don't seem able to make the surrender.' He said, 'I will help you.' He took me to the church and I gave my heart to God. I feel that I am here in direct answer to the prayers of my parents, my sister and the young people of that church, too, who, I learned afterward, had been praying for me in groups. I was a prisoner of hope. There was no way of escape. I feel, somehow, that if we would become dead in earnest concerning the salvation of our children, our neighbors and our friends and associates, many more would be converted. The most of us are here because somebody took an interest in our spiritual welfare."

More Denominational Textbooks Needed

Resolutions for the strengthening of Seventh-day Adventist educational work received enthusiastic support on the part of all delegates present at yesterday afternoon's conference session. Elder Arthur G. Daniells, president of the General Conference, emphasized the danger in using textbooks containing infidel theories and unbiblical teachings. "I have come to the firm conclusion," he said, "that if we were right in establishing a separate denominational system of schools, and I am sure we are, it is our solemn duty to study this question thoroughly, and eliminate all influences dangerous to the welfare of our young people. I have looked through the textbooks in use in our colleges, and have found some of them filled with evolutionary theories, false theology, atheism and higher criticism. Particularly is this true of texts on astronomy, zoology and kindred subjects. I find textbooks in use setting forth theories directly contrary to the teaching of the Bible concerning the origin of man and the heavenly bodies. We ought to eliminate this false philosophy from our texts, and the way to do it is to take the time to prepare suitable textbooks of our own upon these subjects. I am ready to vote with our leaders a sufficient sum of money to support textbook writers, until these needed instruction books are provided. God forbid that a people which has espoused Christian education, and has spent millions of dollars to establish and equip Christian schools, should foster influences which have no other effect than to instill false and unscriptural theories into the hearts and minds of our young men and women."

Elder Daniells Says Continue Vocational Training

Elder Daniells urged that students be trained not in mere book knowledge, but in doing things.
"What is education anyway?" queried Elder Daniells. "Is it what you learn in textbooks? Some of our false notions concerning education ought to be discarded. The boy who has gone through 16 grades of school life and does not know how to put a bridle on a horse or to whittle a stick round, who doesn't know how to do a practical thing, has not received the right sort of education. What I like to see is the boy who knows how to put the coupling pin in the right place at the right time and get the train going on its way. I don't care so much about his philosophy. I want him to do things, do them on time and do them well. J. J. Hill had only eight grades of school training, yet he has been called the best educated man of this generation. Charles W. Eliot has written a book, in which he says that much of the university training must be revised, that many institutions are overlooking the important industrial feature in educational work. Thus leading educators are endorsing principles which Seventh-day Adventists have held for years, namely, that true education is that which brings well-balanced spiritual, mental and physical development."

Mrs. H. E. Osborne, instructor in the normal department of Pacific Union College, a large Adventist institution at St. Helena, Cal., urged that the conferences awaken to the importance of training more teachers for elementary school work.
"You would not think," she said, "of trusting the health of your child to a novice, but sometimes place the training of your children under individuals who are untrained, and who have a limited Christian experience." Teachers, she said, ought to be given hearty support by all parents.

Miss Francis Fry of Oakland, educational superintendent of the Adventist parochial schools in the California Conference, urged that more careful consideration be given to the payment of adequate teachers' salaries. Others who spoke upon the resolution were: Prof. M. E. Cady, Dr. E. W. Alsberge of St. Helena, A.
O. Tait of Mountain View, W. F.
Martin and R. D. Quinn.

Prof. Cady Renders Quadrennial Report

The resolutions as passed by the delegates, called for a more adequate wage scale; the preparation of textbooks in harmony with the principles of Christian education; the revision of courses of study to enable students to elect studies suited to individual needs and ability; proper emphasis on manual training and adequate facilities for conducting same; simplicity and modesty of dress and behavior and the instilling of high ideals regarding entertainments, recreation and association. It was decided to conduct a summer school and institution during the vacation this year. It was decided that in each local conference a physician and nurse be employed to conduct physical examinations of all pupils.

Prof. M. E. Cady, educational secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, submitted his quadrennial report, in which he said, "The territory of the Pacific Union Conference in 1900 reached from the Rockies on the east to the Hawaiian Islands on the west, and from Mexico on the south to the North Pole on the north, for British Columbia and Alaska were a part of this great union field, in addition to eight states on the Pacific slope, which now form two unions—the Pacific and the North Pacific."

Twenty Years' Growth

"Twenty years ago, within our union field, we had one college located at Healdsburg and three church schools. Their combined enrollment, taught by less than 12 teachers, was not more than 250.
Today we have 100 elementary parochial schools, employing 175 teachers and with 3647 students enrolled.
During the quadrennium there has been an increase of 36 schools, 50 teachers and 1466 students." Professor Cady urged that everything possible be done to increase our normal graduates, and to provide adequate teachers' salaries.

Mr. C. E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanitarium, submitted his quadrennial report yesterday morning, in which he showed that the gross business of the institution this year will reach $150,000. He reported that the sanitarium has been operating to its fullest capacity. For weeks past, he said, we have been compelled to turn away from six to ten persons daily.

Progress at San Fernando and Lodi Academies

Paradise Valley Sanitarium, according to the report of Elder J. A.
Burden, manager of the institution, has made good progress the past four years. Receipts from patients have grown from $45,065 in 1916, to $73,642 in 1919. The assets of the institution have grown during the same period from $38,512 in 1916 to $151,787 in 1919, and the present worth, from $7356 to $42,- 956.

Professor R. A. Hare, of Lodi Academy, said that notwithstanding various difficulties through which the institution recently passed, the enrollment is 40 per cent higher than last year. He reported the dormitories filled to overflowing. Improvements have recently been made, including the professor's cottage, and cement walks.

Prof. A. E. Hall, principal of the San Fernando Academy, said in responding his report, that the enrollment of that institution has increased from 81 in 1916 to 126 last year.

Tests

Troop 2—Clifford Wolcott passed Compass.

Troop 3—Lawrence Lehman passed Second Class Signaling and Thrift.

Troop 4—Bertrand Foster, Archie Neel, Edward Woodward, Leslie Hatch, Robert Hatch, Arthur Wetton and Gene Hoy passed a total of eleven tests.

For four consecutive weeks Troop 4 has "put it all over" the other troops. These boys are certainly out for business! And it is about time some of you other Scouts showed some signs of life!

Headquarters

Beginning next week Headquarters will be open for detail, for assistance to Scouts in their tests, etc., only on Monday and Friday from 5 to 6 p. m. Tests will be given on Wednesday at 4:30 and on Saturday at 8:30.

Tree Planting

Owing to a misunderstanding on the part of the City Forester, he did not make connections with the boys of Troop 3 who were waiting for him with a fine crowd of live young workers. Therefore Troop 3 will meet this Saturday at Intermediate School at 8:30 together with Troop 4. There will be two authorities to give direction to the planting, and the two troops will work on different streets. The records will, of course, be kept separate also.

Troop 3

At their last meeting Troop 3 seemed to decide that it would be a pleasant experience to "hang itself." Although being expressly told that neither Scoutmaster nor Assistant Scoutmaster could possibly attend meetings on Friday night, and knowing that it is not permitted to meet at all without this supervision, the boys decided by vote to meet Friday night instead of Thursday. It is to be hoped that Troop 3 is not so eager to run its head into a stone wall as it appears to be. At least this is the assumption of headquarters and rather than have no meeting at all and no troop at all, the meetings will be called on Thursday night.

Scoutmaster Loomis, in a few weeks more, will probably be able to change his program so as to meet the troop on Friday nights, but for the present, if the troop is to continue, the meetings must necessarily be held on Thursday night.

Another Splendid Song

It is to be hoped that every Scout in Glendale cut out and save the verses by Dr. Scaife, which appeared in "The Campfire" last week. Here is another song, and it is certainly splendid. Cut it out, Scouts, and paste it under the cover of your manuals.

BOY SCOUT CLASSES

(Tune: Maryland, My Maryland)
O Tenderfoot, O Tenderfoot, now
try for something better.
try for something better.
To go ahead is duty's call, Disgrace it is, behind to fall.
O Tenderfoot, O Tenderfoot, now
try for something better.
O Second Class, O Second Class,
you're only half way over.
O Second Class, O Second Class,
you're only half way over.
Look up above, the way is long.
Keep marching on, be brave and strong.
O Second Class, O Second Class,
you're only half way over.

O First Class now, O First Class
now, you've reached the Boy Scout summit.
now, you've reached the Boy Scout summit.
But never pause upon the way.
Make progress ever, day by day.
now, you've reached the Boy Scout summit.

Paso Robles is improving at a pace that is positively dizzy. The business streets are to be paved and the houses of the town numbered all in one summer. Residents who they get back.

Art Smith, former captain of the Notre Dame football team, was twice convicted of reckless driving with an auto in Ventura county, and was sentenced to a year in the county jail. That ought to give him time to figure out that even so important a personage as an Eastern football captain is subject to the laws of common mortals.

The Glendale National Bank

—would like to have your account for your sake as well as for our own. You don't know of a successful man or woman who hasn't a bank account, do you? You may say, "He can afford to have a bank account because he is a wealthy and successful man." But it's the other way around. He is successful because he opened a bank account, learned habits of thrift in youth and took advantage of the privileges due him as a patron of the bank.
